VOL. VIII. NO. 4.

CHICAGO, SATURDAY, JANUARY 4, 1902.

PRICE 5 CENTS.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Dave Gideon returned from West Baden the first of last week, and after a short visit to his farm at Holmdel, N. J., expressed himself as well pleased with the condition of his yearlings. There are nine of them at Holmdel, and Mr. Gideon has engaged them in all the big events for next year. He declares that nothing but the big stakes will satisfy him when he takes his horses to the races next spring. Speaking about Holmdel, a breeding farm which has but few equals in this country, the story of how John Daly and Dave Gideon came into possession of it, has probably never been told. When these popular gentlemen brought out His Highness they believed they owned the best two-year-old of that year, and in that they were not mistaken. During his two-year-old form His Highness, through his winning of rich stake events and what his owners wagered on his chances, netted Messrs. Gideon and Daly $170,000, which was kept in a lump sum until the end of the season. With this sum they purchased the beautiful farm at Holmdel. Many improvements were made at the place when they took possession of it. Mr. Daly, among other things, had the old oil lamps about the farm removed and an electric plant substituted. "I want the farm to look like Fifth avenue in the night time," was the way Mr. Daly put it at the time. Recently Mr. Daly decided to retire from the breeding business, and Mr. Gideon bought out his interest, paying his $85,000, just half the original purchase price.

Judge Burke in the Daily America of December 31 has this to say about the starting machine: "It will be good news to those owners who still fear that the starting machine will prove a failure to learn from such a practical man as Mr. Porter that he considers the starting gate the best way to start horses, and that the new rule allowing apprentices to ride for one year with a five pounds' allowance had done a great deal of good. It is amusing to read Mr. Porter's account of his feelings, after having stood to win £100 on Matchbox for the St. Leger, and finally becoming nervous over it, he hedged against the colt only to see another (Throstle) swoop down and beat the pair. Heavy betting trainers do not last long on the English or any other turf. The natural emoluments of their vocation are considered ample compensation for their work."

Charles Hughes, who handled Garry Hermann during the latter's two-year-old career, is wintering in Lexington. He has charge of the string of H. M. Ziegler, the well-known Cincinnati turfman. The horses are quartered at Kingston Stud. The string is made up of three-year-olds and two-year-olds as follows:

Hermis, ch. c. 3, by Hermance—Katy of the West. Setauket, br. c. 3, by Lord Hartington—Mary Greenwood.
Paul Creyton, b. c. 3, by Quicklime—Belle Baden. Ravensbury, blk. c. 3, by Lissak—Leonatus mare No. 2.
Bar Le Duc, b. c. 3, by Lamplighter—Sena Montrose.
Wissendine, br. f. 3, by Pirate of Penzance—Belle of the Highlands.
Bay filly, 3, by Domingo—Alcestis.
Chestnut colt, 2, by Ornament—Mary C.
Bay colt, 2, by Ornament—Blanche J. II.
Chestnut colt, 2, by Cayuga—Estelle Whitney.

Dolando, the "beef and beans" horse, has been retired from active campaigning on the turf and will pass the rest of his days in retirement. He has served his masters well. As a yearling Dolando did not bring a $50 bid at one of the Gravesend sales. Then his owner, R. G. Westmore, began to train him and he showed a fair amount of speed, but he soon went wrong in the knees and had to be turned out. When a three-year-old John Meehan, of beanery fame, was a part owner and Dolando soon became known as the "beef and beans" champion. Whenever he ran, all Park Row was aboard of him both at the track and in the pool rooms. Later he was purchased by Thomas Welsh and last year he ran successfully in the name and colors of Frank Farrell.

Word comes from Lexington, Ky., that Capt. S. S. Brown, of Pittsburg, owner of Garry Hermann, will breed the son of Escher to a limited number of mares next spring if he follows the advice of Charles Hughes, who trained Garry Hermann when he was best. Mr. Hughes said in a recent conversation that Garry Hermann, on top of being a grand racehorse, had the individuality and the pedigree for a successful sire, and even if he could be trained again, there was no reason why he should not be stunted to a few mares. He cited the fact that both Isidor and Ogden made seasons in the stud and then came on and won good races, Ogden taking two in one day. "Another thing," said Mr. Hughes, "very few people know that Eddie Jones, in the Burns & Waterhouse string, and winner of the Winter Handicap (a mile and a quarter in 2:04) was bred to ten or a dozen mares, and won both before and afterward." Mr. Hughes intends to advise Captain Brown to try the experiment with Garry Hermann.

In speaking of the recent purchase of the Tanforan race track the San Francisco Examiner of December 29 has this to say:

"The New California Jockey Club has purchased the land now occupied by the Tanforan race track for $82,500. This is at the rate of $750 per acre. The Jockey Club now owns both the Tanforan and Ingleside tracks, with all improvements, and has a very advantageous lease of the property at Emeryville, with an option to purchase at a good price. The probable object of the purchase of Tanforan was to do away with the obligation to race in San Mateo County. Under the lease and the various subleases from the Western Turf Association and the San Francisco Jockey Club, and originally from the South San Francisco Land Company, it was obligatory to race thirty days at Tanforan. It is considered that the sport at Oakland pays better because the attendance is greater than at Tanforan."

The first declarations from the Crescent City Derby were due last Thursday, and the following were out at 5 o'clock: Electrolytic, Hayward Hunter, Blue Mantle, George Ritchey, Hopfield, Pepper Dick, All About, Jollify, Postillion, Katherine C., Lightfinger, The Four Hundred, Puryear, J. Patrick, Heno. Thirty-three remain in at $25 each, among them, in addition to Lord Quex, the best generally at the local track, including the Bennett trio, Ed Austin, Aladdin and Herodiade; Sam Hildreth's McChesney, John Madden's pair, Pentecost and Slipthrift, and G. W. Cook's Merriment. The second and final declarations are due February 22, with $20 if left in after that date.

Jockey Winnie O'Connor is going to spend a week or two at Haggin's ranch, resting up. He thinks he has been riding in bad luck and complains that all the other jockeys have been roughing him. O'Connor is a past master at that sort of thing himself and if he has been getting the worst of it, the other boys have been merely paying back in kind. It might be well to observe here that a jockey can not set up all night playing poker and expect to ride gilt edged races the next afternoon. San Francisco Examiner.

James Loughman, the well-known local turfman who acted as paddock judge at the various tracks hereabout last year, was stricken down with paralysis of the right side on New Year's day while on a visit to the Harlem track. He has been taken to Dr. Harvey's private sanitarium. His condition is thought to be serious.

Fred Walbaum has made all arrangements to spend the winter abroad. He will sail on Saturday, January 11, and after a trip up the Mediterranean he will time himself to see some racing at Lincoln and the Grand National at Liverpool. Then back to America.

Winner—B. g. by Sir Modred—Ethel. Went to post at 2:17. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. El Mido was poorly handled and got shuffled back to last on the first turn. He went around the field on the stretch turn and caught Lost Girl tiring at the end and just getting up in a whipping finish. Lost Girl was lucky, ran a good race and hung on better than usual. Only a clever ride landed Helen Smith third, as she was tiring badly. Free Lance sulked in the stretch. Nilgar went well to the stretch. El Fonce, under a perfect ride, failed at the end of six furlongs. Probably the weight anchored him. El Mido, show, 1 to 2. Lost Girl, show, 2 to 1. Helen Smith, show, 21 to 1. Free Lance, show, 8 to 5. El Fonce, show, 1 to 2.

Winner—Ch. h. by Watercress—Judith. Went to post at 2:43. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Saul of Tarsus got a lucky break and assumed a safe lead in the first quarter. The result thereafter was never in doubt. Ned Dennis, however, was pocketed and his head up in the air for the first half, pulling over horses. When clear he closed up very fast and was much the best of the others. Bard Burns is evidently in good form, showed plenty of speed for five furlongs and should win if properly placed. Invictus closed a big gap from a poor sendoff. Scallywag was prominent to the stretch. Chappie ran badly and can do better.

Scratched—29651 Sea Lion, 114; 29862 Bill Bohmanson, 104; 29999 Carlee, 102.

Overweights—Bard Burns, 2 pounds; Harry Thatcher, 3; William F., 3; Catherine Bravo, 5. Saul of Tarsus, show, out. Ned Dennis, show, 6 to 5. Bard Burns, show, 2 to 1.

Winner—B. c. by Emperor of Norfolk—La Plata. Went to post at 3:08. At post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won handily; second driving. Huachuca in rare form. Off poorly and driving throughout he displayed great gameness and stamina in a whipping finish through the last quarter after being compelled to bump his way through. Ishtar was bumped and crowded in next to the rail all through the stretch by the winner or she might have won. Dr. Scharff showed his usual brilliant speed and stayed well. Nonie also went well throughout. Bragg was closing up at the end. Dandy ran poorly.

Scratched—30029 Legal Maxim, 114; 29936 Tyrannus, 111; (29966) Bassenzo, 111; 30023 Phyllis, 109.

Huachuca, show, out. Ishtar, show, 1 to 3. Dr. Scharff, show, 7 to 10.

Winner—Ch. c. by Ducat—Rose of Magenta. Went to post at 3:31. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Byron Rose an improved horse, set a terrific pace while well in hand throughout and was best. Matt Hogan ran under restraint for the first half but failed to respond when called on. However he has developed in a genuinely game and true horse but is best in mud. Princess Titania ran dully and failed to make good as was expected in the stretch run. Evidently weight sits unusually heavy on her. Rey Dare was outrun from the start.

Overweights—Matt Hogan, 3 pounds. No show betting.

Gale Todd was in close quarters in the last sixteenth. Intent tired when the final test came. Grace ran an improved race. Ducassa labored going around the turns. Give and Take can do much better.

Scratched—(30057) The Brother, 105.

Went to post at 3:31. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second easily. Lady Florence was well in her stride when the flag fell, which enabled her to tip toe her field. Oton Clay ran a good race and with better handling would have given the winner a stouter argument. Ohio King was tiring fast at the end. Little Tower made up some ground in the last half. Lady Riley was badly interfered with when Mollie Brooks fell on the first turn. Fannie Knox, with better handling, would have been closer up at the end.

Lady Florence, show, out. Oton Clay, show, 2 to 1. Ohio King, show, 2 to 1. Fannie Knox, show, 1 to 2.

Winner—Ch. h. by Escher—The Princess.
Went to post at 4:06. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Prince Escher showed early speed, went to the front when ready and won as his rider pleased. Lulu Hammond was a keen contender all the way. She slightly interfered with Sauce Boat on one of the turns but not enough to affect his chances had he been good enough to win. Pan Charm began slowly but closed much ground toward the end and finished strongly. King Galong ran well in the first part of the race.

Scratched—(30057) Elsie Venner, 100.

Corrected weights—King Galong, 102.

Overweights—Mark Hanna II., 2 pounds.

Prince Escher, show, out. Lulu Hammond, show, 3 to 1. Sauce Boat, show, evens. Pan Charm, show, 1 to 2.

Winner—Br. m. by Lissak—Early Morn.
Went to post at 4:37. At post 9 minutes. Start poor. Won easily; second the same. Sackhen was well in her stride when the field broke. Trilby Nelson ran to her best form and had no mishaps. Lady Hayman broke with her field but the starter complained to the judges that Alarie pulled her up. When she started after her field she was fully ten lengths behind the last horse. Janie Seay and Sadie Southwell ran their races at the post. Alarie was suspended indefinitely by the judges for his ride.

Scratched—(29957) Ellison, 108; (30006) Jim Scanlan, 96.

Overweights—Janie Seay, 4 pounds; Sadie Southwell, 3.

Went to post at 5:12. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second driving. Also Ran II. was under restraint for the first half mile, went to the front when called upon and won with plenty in reserve. Bad Penny showed early speed, but was made too much use of. He should improve from this race. Economic came with a rush through the stretch and caught Handuff when the latter tired.

Winner—Blk. f. by Lissak—Ella Gore.
Went to post at 2:02. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second handily. Eliza Dillon, favored by her light impost, raced Gray Morn into exhaustion and then managed to last long enough to stall off King Tatiatus. The latter ran under restraint for the first five-eighths, went wide at the stretch turn and came again at the end and would have won in another stride. He was easily the best and the winner's victory was due to Cochran outriding Lyne. Socapa ran well but hung when it came to a drive. Gray Morn took the short route and raced next to the inner rail all the way.

Overweights—Eliza Dillon, 1 pound; King Tatiatus, 1.

Eliza Dillon, show, evens. King Tatiatus, show, evens. Socapa, show, out. The Way, show, 1 to 2.

Winner—B. h. by Inverness—Virgin.

Went to post at 2:23. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second driving. Ecome finished fast and strongly through the stretch, caught Samivel tiring and was going away at the finish, but Winkfield had to hustle him along in the first part of the race to keep him up. Samivel showed the most early speed but was made too much use of and tired at the end. Homage closed a big gap after coming to the extreme outside at the stretch turn and would have been second in a few more strides. Fannie Maud was eased up when beaten. Ida Penzance ran a bad race and can do better.

Overweights—Samivel, 1 1/2 pounds; Homage, 1; Dr. Carrick, 1.
